Hotel Explora Patagonia

Day 1 - 5: Hotel Explora Patagonia

The concept of hotel Explora combines luxury with adventure - refined accommodations and services with exciting excursions and guaranteed contact with nature. Known as Hotel Salto Chico, Explora in the Torres del Paine National Park is a homey and comfortable wilderness lodge that accommodates explorers throughout the year. It is located directly on the Lake Pehoe, just opposite the magnificent "cuernos" of the Paine Massif and includes all the facilities of a contemporary first-class hotel.

Rooms & Services:

The hotel has 50 rooms:

- 6 Suites Exploradores (39 m2/ 420 sq.ft) with a view of Macizo del Paine.
- 37 Cordillera Paine rooms (26 m2/ 280 sq.ft) with a view of Macizo del Paine.
- 7 rooms with view to the Salto Chico waterfall (26 m2/ 280 sq.ft).

Explorations:

Visitors at Explora can join a wide range of carefully developed explorations. Each day you can choose from 5 different explorations out of a total of 25 alternatives which have been selected according to the weather, guests' desires, the duration and its difficulties.

Packages:

Explora offers all-inclusive packages of 4 or 8 nights of duration. These include all beverages, meals, facilities, and excursions. For the comfort of the guests, scheduled departure and arrival days minimize the amount of disquietude.

Activities & Explorations:

The excursions include contemplative activities like bird watching, photography, trekking, and horseback riding. The programs are centered on Torres del Paine National Park, a site of such marvelous beauty that it has inspired a host of legends and myths, firing the imaginations of any who visit. The fifteen explorations, which provide intimate contact with the wonders of the Park. Each is intended to present the mysterious beauty of each site, and to recreate for every visitor the wonder of its inscrutable existence. Each exploration is designed for persons of normal physical condition and is classified according to duration and fitness requirements. Five explorations are offered each day, and our experienced guides can suggest those best suited to the interests and the exertion level of each guest. The expeditions include lunch and are limited to ten guests, plus the guide.
