Cordoba and Jesuits

The Jesuit Missions were the product of a cultural mixture and represent a real example of political and social organization; its architecture and artistic manifestations were devoted to decorate and beautify the missions, which, after the expulsion of the Jesuit Fathers, were left to become the ruins that are nowadays seen

Day 1: Arrive in Cordoba

Upon arrival at Cordoba airport, you will be met by our representative and escorted to your hotel. Overnight in Cordoba.

Day 2: Cordoba (Jesuit Legacy tour)

Today you will leave on a full day tour to the Jesuits Ranches, declared World Heritage Site by the UNESCO. You visit the "Casa de Caroya" Jesuit Ranch, which was used as a summer residence for students of the Monserrat College. After that, you will go to Jesús María, renowned for its Festival de Doma y Folclore (taming and folk music festival), where you will find the San Isidro Labrador Jesuit Ranch, pioneer in making wine in this area. Continuing you visit the historical "Posta de Sinsacate" and the area of Barranca Yaco, where the famous political leader "el caudillo" Facundo Quiroga was murdered in an ambush in 1834. You arrive later at the Santa Catalina Jesuit Ranch, known for the beauty of its baroque style church façade. Return to the hotel. Overnight in Cordoba.

(Included meals: breakfast)
