Patagonia by Train

Departing from the mountains where the most important lake region is located, to the sea we will enjoy the marine fauna reserves, and travel from east to west on board of the Patagonic Train, the first cruise by land that invites you to enjoy a fantastic journey that offers the best services on board and amazing landscapes.

Day 1: Arrive in San Carlos de Bariloche

Reception at the airport and transfer to the hotel. Departure from the hotel for a half-day sightseeing tour of Bariloche and its outskirts. Drive along Bustillo Avenue, bordering the Nahuel Huapi Lake towards Playa Bonita. The tour continues to Campanario Hill, where a chair-lift will take us to the summit. Enjoy a complete overview of Nahuel Huapi lake, the mountain peaks of the Andean Range and the city. Later on, we will drive towards the San Pedro and Llao peninsulas. Visit San Eduardo Chapel and take pleasure of the Llao Llao hotel's view and Puerto Pañuelo, the embarkation point for most lake excursions. We will cross the bridge that connects the Nahuel Huapi and Moreno Lakes and then we will continue to López Bay. Enjoy a breathtaking view of Nahuel Huapi Lake from the panoramic point, a natural balcony facing the Moreno Lake. Return to Bariloche.

Day 2: San Carlos de Bariloche - Nahuel Huapi

Breakfast. Day at leisure for optional tours: we recommend the full day excursion to San Martín de los Andes. Departure to San Martín de los Andes through the Seven Lakes Road. This scenic route that borders the northern margin of Nahuel Huapi Lake will take us to Villa La Angostura, little village surrounded by dense forests and towering mountains. The road has mountain stretches and goes through dense woods with huge coihues. We will continue along the Seven Lakes Road passing by Correntoso, Espejo, Falconer and Villain, Babble, Mechanic and Lacar lakes. Arriving to San Martín de los Andes, a lovely alpine village located by the Lacar lake shore. We will have lunch and later either go shopping or stroll around the town. Return through Cordoba pass (1,200 m above sea level) admiring the typical patagonian landscape. Continue through Trafalgar and Limey rivers confluence, Valle Enchanted (Enchanted Valley), where we will see strange rocky shapes such as the Castle, God's Finger, the Elephant and the Amphitheater, which looks like a Roman Circus, and finally arriving to Bariloche.

Day 3: San Carlos de Bariloche - San Antonio - Peninsula Valdes

Breakfast. Transfer to the train station to board the Patagonian Train which departs at 7 p.m. for a night trip to San Antonio Oeste. We will board a comfortable sleeper train with cabins, restaurant and cinema.

Day 4: Peninsula Valdes

Arrival at 7.45 AM at San Antonio Oeste train station. Reception and transfer to Puerto Pirámide. Lunch at a restaurant (drinks not included). After lunch, we will embark to see the marine fauna. Then we will continue to Punta Delgada (376 km / 234 miles) which has a marvelous beach where a colony of marine elephants, sea wolves, maras, choiques, foxes and guanacos live.

Day 5: Peninsula Valdes - Puerto Madryn

Breakfast. Transfer to San Lorenzo to see the penguin rockery. Then we will continue to Puerto Madryn. Transfer to the hotel.

Day 6: Fly out from Trelew

Breakfast. Transfer to Trelew Airport.
