The Essence of Argentine Wines

An escapade to Mendoza, to explore the diverse oasis of winemaking: the Central Valleys and the high terroirs of the Uco Valley. Lodge at exclusive, countryside retreats. Dine at Argentina's most renowned chefs' own private venues, and state-of-the-art wineries. Lay back and enjoy the landscape of this marvelous land at the foothill of the Andes.

Day 1: Mendoza - Uco Valley - Tupungato Volcano

Morning reception at Mendoza, center of Argentina's wine making. Transfer to Uco Valley and lodge at the exclusive Posada. Lunch at Killka, Salentein Bodega's Restaurant and Art Space. Afternoon visit to the winery and walk through the vineyards with incredible views to the Andes and the Tupungato Volcano (6800 mts). Lunch and Dinner.

Day 2: Mendoza - Uco Valley

Today we head for one of the valley's finest wineries: Clos de los Siete, a joint wine adventure initiated a few years back by the world famous French winemaker Michel Rolland, with magnificent views of the Andes. We also visit Montevejo Winery, before heading for a traditional Asado at Posada del Jamon, the hidden local gem specialized in pork meats, with more magnificent views of the Andes over lunch. Afternoon horseback ride by the Andean foothills, or leisure at the Posada's magnificent surroundings. All meals included

Optional Horse back riding (included) level: easy - approx. total time 2 hours

Day 3: Central Valleys of Mendoza – Wineries

After breakfast, we transfer north to the province's central valleys. Morning visit to award winning winery Achaval Ferrer. Only a few years into the market, its wines consistently receive 90+ punctuations in Wine Spectator. Lunch at the superb restaurant of Ruca Malen winery, and check in at the exclusive lodge at the vineyards. Evening visit to centric Mendoza, and farewell dinner at "1884", where Chef Francis Mallman blends the finest culinary traditions of France and South America. All meals included

Day 4: Mendoza - Fly out from Buenos Aires

Breakfast. Morning transfer to Mendoza airport to board flights back to Buenos Aires. Transfer from Buenos Aires domestic to international airport to board flight home / choice of transfer to centric hotel.
