Sacred Valley river rafting

Sacred Valley river rafting

Early in the morning transfer from the hotel and drive through the Andes to our private stopover situated in the Sacred valley of the Incas, and located at Pachar. Here you will receive your safety briefing and equipment (toilet facilities).

After a brief period practicing on the flatter parts of the river. We will begin your rafting experience, passing down past Ollantaytambo and its Inca terraces and through rapids of class II and III and finishing with "El Resbaladero" (the slippery one) which is a strong CLASS III rapid that includes waves and minor whirlpools.

After exiting, we dry out and change clothes. Then we proceed to a tented picnic lunch on the river bank. Transfer back to your hotel in Cusco or Sacred Valley.
