Sacred Valley horse riding

Peruvian Paso Horse (three hour)

Enjoy two to three hour horse ride that will give you the unique experience of riding the smoothest riding horse in the world, the Peruvian Paso Horse.

There are many places to visit, like the salt pans of Maras, or Inca salt pans, which have been used for centuries. They are allotted to the citizens of Maras and each one gets a certain number of the plots to which they keep the profits of the salt that is packaged out and sold. Families pass the plots down from generation to generation like heirlooms.

The old village of Pichingoto, which is a Quechua community dwelling in the base of the basalt Qoriqaqya Mountain; the houses have facades that are made with sun-dried mud-bricks, but, which entrails are carved in the mountain. They are small caverns or caves inhabited even today by the beginning of the XXI century; although, their occupants are already educated or have some instruction level, they have a small Catholic Chapel and even electricity inside their houses.

If time permits, also visit the lively market towns of Urubamba or the wonderful farmland and the Quechua communities in the valley. All the while you will become familiar with the beautiful Peruvian Paso Horse.
