Over a million tourists a year visit the world famous "Pão de Açúcar", or Sugar Loaf Mountain in English, which has become an iconic symbol of the city of Rio de Janeiro. The tour is done in two steps by glass cable-cars. The first cable-car takes passengers to the top of Urca Hill, which rises 215 meters above sea level and offers spectacular views of the entire bay its islands. From Urca Hill, passengers continue in a second cable car to the top of Sugar Loaf which rises 395 meters above sea level and offers a 360 degree view of the entire city including Botafogo and Copacabana Beaches, the Corcovado and downtown Rio. When we get to Itacuruçá we will board a yacht provided with well-trained lifeguards available for everyone. Tropical fruits and the famous "caipirinha" are offered on board. Before reaching the island, where lunch is served, the yacht will make a stop for those who want to dive in very clear waters of the bay.
