Buenos Aires, Iguazu and Calafate

Day 1: Arrive in Buenos Aires

Arrival at Ezeiza International airport. Assistance on arrival by one of our representatives, who will take you to the hotel. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

Day 2: Buenos Aires (city tour)

After breakfast at the hotel, depart on a guided tour to the most important places in Buenos Aires. The tour includes the National Congress, the Metropolitan Cathedral, Government House and the area of Plaza de Mayo. You will be at the heart of the Tango activity where this sensuous dance is performed in the street for passersby to enjoy in the traditional neighbourhood of San Telmo, where this typical dance dwells. Then you will visit La Boca and stop at this colorful suburb of the city adopted years ago as his home by the first Italian immigrants. Today is home for important artists. Then, a visit to Palermo is scheduled, a residential neighbourhood with parks and elegant buildings. Finally, you will visit the sophisticated Recoleta, one of the most exclusive neighbourhoods in which among other attractions, you can take a look at the famous cemetery alongside fine restaurants and cafes. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

(Included meals: breakfast)

Day 3: Buenos Aires (leisure day)

Day at leisure for shopping or optional excursions. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

Day 5: Iguazu (Argentina falls)

Departure to the Argentinean Falls tour. The UNESCO declared this place Natural World Heritage in the year 1984.

The tour has a lower path, a higher path and the "Garganta del Diablo" path. The Paseo Inferior (Lower Path): this round 1,200-metre-walk (0.8 miles) gives you a great view of the majority of the rapids and falls from a front and lower point of view. The distances range from a bird's eye point of view of "Garganta del Diablo" (The Devil's Throat) together with several Brazilian rapids, to spectacular close-ups to other falls. If you like to, you will be able to enjoy "Salto Bossetti" (the Bossetti Fall) splash.

The Paseo Superior (Higher Path): this round 1,300-metre-walk (0.9 miles) will raise your adrenaline level because you will feel the vertigo of being at the edge of some waterfalls. This walk has a breathtaking scenery cliff-point outlook. This is the less effort demanding walk of the three traditional ones.

Garganta del Diablo Waterfall: to access this place, you will have to take the "Tren Ecológico de la Selva" (Ecological Jungle Train), and you must get off at the stop named after this waterfall. From there, you will start a stroll along the safe new catwalk floor which is a winding path that goes around the islands for 1,100 meters (0,7 miles) and ends in the large balconies located on the edge of The Devil's Throat. Overnight in Iguazu.

(Included meals: breakfast)

Day 6: Iguazu (leisure day)
