Inca trail on horseback

Day 1: Salta - Lerman Valley

Pick up at Salta city for a two hours drive to La Viña. Meet the horses on the mountainous forest of Lerma Valley. Last minute packing before riding West into the Dead Lions range. At sunset, arrive at the mountain shelter where we will be awaited with an energizing homemade dinner. Night in camp in Lerma Valley.

(Included meals: dinner)

Day 2: Lerman Valley - Calchaqui Valley

The dense forest gradually gives way to high altitude grasslands. Once we reach approximately 3000mts and have the chance to see more condors, we descend into the desertic Calchaqui Valley. We head towards the town of Amblayo where we will spend the night. It has only 150 dwellers. Sense the feeling of arriving on horseback to this tiny town with no cars! It is renowned for its goat cheese. Traditional lamb barbecue at dinner. Night at Amblayo.

(Included meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner)

Day 3: Calchaqui Valley - Cafayate

We walk the town and visit its Colonial chapel. We then leave Amblayo riding into the mountains and into Cafayate Creek where the mounts have a look of the Grand Canyon in Colorado. We camp by the home of a local family. Traditional lamb barbecue at dinner. Night in camp in Cafayate Creek.

(Included meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner)

Day 4: Cafayate - Fly out from Salta

We ride towards Las Conchas River Gorge. Today we will have the chance to see one of the best views of Salta. Las Conchas River is our ending point. Say farewell to the horses. Back to Salta City.

(Included meals: breakfast)
