Bariloche, High Impact

Day 1: Arrive in Bariloche

Upon arrival at Bariloche airport, you will be met by our representative and escorted to your hotel. Overnight in Bariloche.

Day 2: Bariloche (Rafting)

Advance Rafting on Manso River Excursion. After a transfer on a minibus through the Villegas Park and up to El Manso town you will have a breakfast waiting for you in a ranch on this place. Then, all the equipment will be handed in and you will start the descent along the river with rapids with a difficulty of 3 and 4. Once in the border with Chile you will get off the boat and will be taken back to the starting point where a lunch with a Patagonian lamb will be waiting for you. The return to Bariloche will be along the same route. Overnight in Bariloche.

(Included meals: breakfast, box lunch)

Day 3: Bariloche (Horseback riding)

Today you will enjoy a Horse Riding Excursion. Fortin Estancia is located about 20 km (12.4 mi) from Bariloche. It has 5,000 ha (12,355 acres) dedicated mainly to cattle breeding and the improvement of the sheep race. Its origins date back to 1883 when General Villegas ordered its building as the Chacabuco Fort during the wars against the natives living in Patagonia. Inside the lands belonging to the farm, the landscape is quite varied and it is possible to go horseback riding around there and watching the local fauna: deers, wild rabbits, foxes. Overnight in Bariloche.

(Included meals: breakfast, lunch)

Day 4: Fly out from Bariloche

At the set time you will be transferred to Bariloche airport.
