Shawn McLaughlin

The Complete Guide to Easter Island

2004, PAPER, 277 PAGES, $25.00

Published by the Easter Island Foundation, this compact, comprehensive guide covers the history, people and practicalities of Easter Island. With a selection of maps and black-and-white photographs. (Item no. EIL17)

John Flenley, Paul Bahn

The Enigmas of Easter Island

2003, HARD COVER, 256 PAGES, $43.50

In this revised and updated edition of Bahn and Flenley's highly regarded 1992 book, the authors offer an excellent, scholarly portrait of the island, its art, culture and collapse. They incorporate recent archaeological evidence and research, including what has been learned from the Rongorongo script. With chapters on European discovery, settlement, quarrying and moving of rock for the giant statues, and aftermath. (Item no. EIL02)

Catherine Orliac, Paul Bahn

Easter Island, Mystery of the Stone Giants

1995, PAPER, 143 PAGES, $12.95

A pocket-size encyclopedia of archaeology and culture. This slim volume features color photographs and illustrations, excerpts from key works and a good synopsis of the archaeological history. Part of the acclaimed "Discoveries" series, it is a concise overview of the magnificent archaeological finds at Easter Island. (Item no. EIL01)

Thor Heyerdahl, F. H. Lyon

Kon-Tiki, Across the Pacific by Raft

1995, PAPER, 230 PAGES, $5.99

A hugely popular account of a 1947 raft sailing trip along the Humboldt and Equatorial currents from Peru to Tahiti, where the author set out to prove that early humans could have made the same trip millennia ago. (Item no. PAC10)

Paul Theroux

The Happy Isles of Oceania, Paddling the Pacific

1993, PAPER, 528 PAGES, $14.95

Here's Theroux at his best: wickedly funny, open-minded and enormously well informed. In this best-selling book, he flies off to Australia with a kayak and ends up exploring much of Melanesia and Polynesia as well. (Item no. PAC03)

Katherine Routledge

The Mystery of Easter Island

1998, PAPER, 404 PAGES, $16.95

The author's 1913 voyage from Southampton to Easter Island, and her voyage home. (Item no. EIL10)
